

From Welfare To Independence

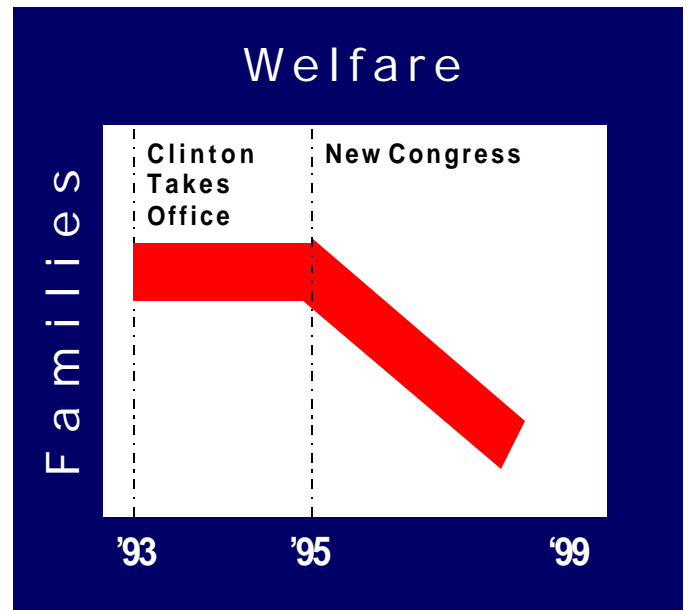

The problem...

- Five years ago, more than 13 million Americans depended on a government check to feed their children.

The solution...

- Republicans overcame two presidential vetoes and passed landmark welfare reform legislation.

The result...

- Since 1995, more than 6 million Americans are off welfare and are enjoying the rewards of hard work and a well-deserved paycheck.
- The strong economy has produced high-paying jobs for many families that used to depend on welfare.

Because of welfare reform, millions of American children now enjoy more freedom and a more secure future.
